

Clearwater Fly Casters Scholarship Application

Due February 11, 2023

$1500

Information:

Any undergraduate or graduate involved with fisheries research, natural resources management fishing education, or other work fostering the knowledge of fishing shall be eligible for this scholarship.

Preference will be given to individuals who are involved with the conservation and restoration of wild fish, fisheries, management and/or stream habitat restoration either through research, education, extension or include any aspect of fishing education.

Required

A one page non technical description of the proposed project with the appropriate contact information for the student and a letter of endorsement from you faculty advisor.

See page two of the application for detailed instructions.

Send you application and letter of endorsement as a PDF file to:
clswan12@gmail.com.

The criteria for the scholarship can be found on Page 4 at: <http://clearwaterflycasters.com/history/bylawasmay8213.pdf>

Instructions for scholarship applications for Clearwater Fly Casters

1. Provide a one page report on your proposed research project. Keep your explanations simple.
2. State what the money will be used for: equipment, travel, food, etc.
3. All documents to be in PDF format. Questions: Email clswan12@mail.com
4. Criteria from the clubs website are listed below.

The Bill Alspach & Dave Engerbretson Memorial Scholarship: This scholarship shall be awarded annually, or at the discretion of the Executive Committee, to one or more students at Eastern Washington University, Lewis-Clark State College, the University of Idaho, or Washington State University. Any currently enrolled undergraduate or graduate student involved with fisheries research and management, natural resources management and conservation, fishing education or other work fostering the knowledge of fisheries or fishing shall be eligible for this award. Preference should be given to individuals who are involved with the conservation and restoration of wild fish, fisheries management, and/or stream and habitat restoration through research, education, or extension.